Hi everyone. This is part 1 of my explanation with everything going on. In this google doc, I address Lex contacting me as a minor and forming a romantic relationship with me as a minor, knowing I was a minor.

There is a lot to address, and Im going to be addressing everything in order, as things happened in my life. This is my story. Lex, the person who this story is about, is trying to take away any credibility from me before I can get a formal response out. This entire thing is incredibly invasive since I will be posting pictures of me as a minor. Lex is purposefully leaving this out of his timeline, so I have to show this.

Trigger Warning: These are very intimate photos that show myself getting groomed over the years by my favorite Youtuber.

My story starts off with me as a 15 year old fangirl. I went to a ZHouse meet up in Santa Monica, on January 24th, 2016. I got to meet Lex and get a picture with him, but I was too shy to do any type of interacting with him. After the meet up, I continued being a fangirl and would reply to Lex's public tweets and even tweeted him some cringe fanart that he retweeted. Lex followed me on twitter after I interacted with more of his tweets, but he didn't message me until I tweeted out something about needing help with the Zetsubo No Shima easter egg. Lex sent me my own tweet, and offered to help me. I gladly accepted his help and downloaded Skype to talk to him. Our first ever call went on for 4 hours and we proceeded to do this regularly, daily.

Lex and I met in 2016 and started speaking when I was 15 years old and he was 18 years old. We formed an online relationship before we met in person with the intentions of dating in 2017. Here is a screenshot with dates, confirming that Lex first talked to me when I was 15 and he was 18. He was telling me how much he appreciated my female presence in his life because he "never really had one" when he was younger. And the caption on the instagram post is me saying i'm happy we made it past a year of knowing each other.

Here are images of the first day Lex and I met in person. July 4th 2017. In California.

The night we met, we spent the night together in a hotel room, where Lex became my first kiss. I only have this image of me in the hotel, the next day, crying because Lex had to go back to LA. Again, this all happened in California.

Our second time meeting in person was on July 10th 2017, when he booked a hotel for a weekend in Oceanside and took me to Disneyland. This was also my first time at Disneyland. He stayed until July 13th. In this hotel room, Lex and I would make out. He would try to take things further but I was very adamant on saying no. One night, Lex took it too far with me and touched my breasts under my shirt; causing me to leave home for the night because I felt uncomfortable. I ended up coming back the next morning in my pajamas. Btw this is the California Disneyland.

August 12th, 2017 is when Lex invited me over to the ZHouse in LA. As well as the Boogie Boys house in LA. I spent multiple weekends with Lex in LA, partying with him and his friends, as well as going out to dinners and events with them. Lex lied about my age to all of his friends, telling them I was 18 years old. Lex even changed my birth year on a Passport for an escape room that he, all his friends, and I did together, so that no one would catch on. This escape room was on Hollywood Blvd, in California.

The instagram screenshots are from an account that I have owned since high school. I took the username from someone else, named Alex, when she deactivated their account.

TW: child grooming and rape

Here are some videos of Lex and I at the ZHouse. I am incredibly intoxicated in these videos as Lex has me on top of him. He would get me drunk and take me back to a hotel, away from the ZHouse, in hopes of getting laid.

https://x.com/puresoftie/status/1816623917550936398?s=46&t=o39xBBK-_aIgRPL49AlC2Q

The reason I say “stopp” in one of these videos, is because Lex was running his fingers across my breasts in a playful manner, trying to touch me without my permission. I am 16 years old and Lex is 19 years old.

Every night I spent with Lex, he would beg to do something to me. He would beg to eat me out, beg to finger me, beg to touch me anywhere, and beg to have sex with me. I always always Always said No. It took a lot of begging from Lex for me to unwillingly give him what he wanted. Lex orally raped me multiple times at the Zhouse. I would wake up with no memory of the night before, and with hickeys on my neck. On the last night at the ZHouse, everyone left early and Lex was the only one staying in the airbnb. This night, Lex made plans to get me high and take my virginity. He took me to the store with him to buy condoms since I was very paranoid about the idea of no protection. When we came back to the ZHouse, Lex tried to set the mood for us by getting me high and putting on anime. The weed made me so paranoid, and it made the anime so loud, that I got overstimulated and cried to Lex that I didn't want to have sex that night. Lex didn't end up taking my virginity this night, but he expressed how upset he was that he bought condoms for no reason; yet, I was not old enough to give consent anyways.

Lex proceeded to get a hotel room for him and I, for the next few days after ZHouse ended. On August 31st 2017, Lex took my virginity in his hotel room after begging me over and over. He begged me to have sex with him since that was our last night together and he was going back home to Canada. The whole experience was awful. I did not want to have sex with him. We made up the next morning and said our goodbyes to each other. He made plans to come back and see me.

Since I do not have pictures of us in the hotel room, here are pictures with the dates, proving that Lex and I were together at this time. The image of him with hearts around him was at a video recording for his 1 million subscriber special.

Lex came back that same year, October 29th, 2017, to take me to Disneyland with his best friend from Canada. His friend took professional photos of us on our date. I'm still 16 years old and Lex is still 19 years old. This was my second time ever going to Disneyland, and it was with Lex again because he knew I grew up in a low income household that never went to Disneyland.

Lex and I stayed in contact everyday, leading up to us meeting again in person on April 21st, 2018. Now i am 17 years old, and Lex is now 20 years old. Lex just came down to book a hotel room, smoke weed, and have sex with me. He also bought me my first smoking paraphernalia on this trip.

After that, Lex came back during June 2018 to spend his summer living in California with me. The ZHouse weren't doing another summer in California together, so Lex decided to have his own summer here. He rented an airbnb and stayed for two months. This was when Lex started being overly sexual and toxic towards me in person. He would have sex with me multiple times over the course of this month, even buying me Plan B to avoid a possible pregnancy. We would constantly argue during this time period together and I would spend a lot of my time locked alone in the bathroom. Lex was also taking me to high school and picking me up after school so I could be with him more.

Our next meet up in person was for my high school Homecoming dance. Once again, Lex booked a fancy hotel for us to have sex in. He did take me to my homecoming dance and we even bought the printed photos that was taken of us. This is the only photo I have of Lex and I right after sex, but in this photo he is 20 years old and I am 17 years old. The photos have the dates attached to them.

For my 18th birthday, Lex came back down to California and rented out another very nice airbnb for us to stay at. Lex took me to Disneyland again for my birthday. Lex also bought me $200 worth of weed and a shopping spree as a birthday present. My birthday is on December 12th.

The next photo I'm providing is a text convo between Lex and I, where we are sexting. That is my old phone number. I am 17 years old and this wasn't the first time we sexted. He ended the convo by sending me a dick pic. I never enjoyed sexting Lex and was only doing it to please him. Lex had a high sex drive, and I had no sex drive at all. He also groomed me into calling him “daddy” at a young age because it fueled his kinks.

Lex first started sexting me when I was 15 years old, on October 29th 2016, via Twitter dms. This was also the first time he ever told me he loved me. I remember the date so vividly because this was the first time I had done anything remotely sexual in my life. I do not have the screenshots anymore to back up this claim. I only have screenshots of Lex dming me sexual things on Twitter, back in 2018, when I was 17 years old, via email.

Now, some of you might ask: How is this grooming?

Grooming, by definition, is the action of attempting to form a relationship with a child or a young person, with the intention of sexually assaulting them.

Many things contribute to the lifetime of grooming I've gone through, but when Lex met me, he knew I was a virgin. He begged to do things to me. He begged to have sex with me. He bought me things, and took me to Disneyland for my first time, with the hopes of getting laid. But I was a child and I was scared.

Throughout the time I knew Lex as a minor, until I turned 18, Lex was my provider and would gift me things that my parents could not. For example, Lex would always get me the new video games that game out, along with the season passes for DLC, just so he could play games with me. Anything Lex bought me, was in turn, a way to get closer to him.

This is just part 1 of my story. I only told the story up until I turned 18, which now means things will be considered legal. I will be releasing a part 2, addressing things that happened when I became a legal adult, and debunking many of Lex's claims against me with more proof.

Lex purposefully left out this part of our timeline from his Google Doc and he purposefully is stating that our relationship only started when I was 18, but here is my evidence proving him wrong.
